

Please do not replace Wisconsin's No Call Law with federal rules that allow companies to telemarket former customers for up to 18 months after cancellation of services or to allow companies we buy products from and any of their affiliates to call us to try to sell other products. Our law in Wisconsin is very popular and it would be a huge mistake to force a change in it.